

Michael P. Malone

Chief Financial Officer Technical Communications Corporation

As Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Malone is responsible for all financial aspects of Technical Communications Corporation (TCC), a publically traded and global business. He is also Treasurer and Assistant Secretary for the Company. Specific areas of focus include corporate accounting, financial reporting, tax planning and compliance, management information systems, treasury functions, and internal control structure. He joined TCC as Director of Finance in 1998 and was appointed to his current position of CFO in 2000.

Mr. Malone joined TCC from Vasca, Inc., a start-up manufacturer of medical devices, where he held the position of Controller, reporting to the CEO. In this role, Mr. Malone negotiated venture capital and lease line financing; created a comprehensive budgeting, forecasting and reporting system; implemented a client/server-based financial accounting software system; and established financial discipline with a full range of financial policies and procedures.

Prior to this, Mr. Malone was Corporate Controller and Treasurer of Zoll Medical Corporation responsible for creating a number of critical financial systems and functions for this newly public company. He was also responsible for risk management and developed several tax strategies, including a foreign sales corporation and a technology holding company. During his five years with Zoll, company revenues increased by 175 percent.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Malone was Senior Manager in the Audit department of Ernst & Young, a “Big 4” public accounting firm, managing audit teams serving a diverse client base including manufacturing, healthcare, non-profit, and mutual fund companies, and including both public and private organizations.

Mr. Malone earned the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration, Cum Laude, from Providence College. He is a Certified Public Accountant in Massachusetts, and is a member of the Massachusetts Society of CPA’s and the Financial Executives International.
